

Animal Bites

All animal bites, whether by domestic or wild animal, are reported to the Monmouth County Health Department at 732-431-7456 and to Animal Control. Monmouth County Health Officials and Animal Control Officers work collaboratively to verify that the biting animal does not have rabies. In absence of this information, the officials will assist in the determination of whether post-exposure vaccinations are warranted to protect against the possibility of rabies.