November 9th Uninvited: The Spread of Invasive Species

Uninvited: The Spread of Invasive Species. The documentary introduces the concept of invasive species and highlights some of the species threatening New York's environment and economy, while also showing some innovative ways that New York State is combatting these threats.

November 16th Wasted, The Story of Food Waste

An investigation of the reasons why 1.2 billion tonnes of food gets thrown away every year and possible ways to rectify the problem. Famous chefs demonstrate how to transform scraps into incredible dishes.

November 30th Bag It

Bag it, has been garnering awards at film festivals across the nation. What started as a documentary about plastic bags evolved into a wholesale investigation into plastics and their effect on our waterways, oceans, and even our bodies.

December 7th Groundswell Rising

This Insightful documentary from Emmy Award-winning Resolution Pictures captures the passion of people engaged in a David versus Goliath confrontation. They stand together, challenging a system that promotes profit over health.

Infusing human rights, public health, and social justice into a deeply engaging, feature length documentary film, Groundswell Rising empowers viewers to make a difference in their communities. Through candid interviews and true stories, Groundswell Rising brings us into the lives of people directly impacted by hydraulic fracturing (fracking) and those on the front lines, dedicated to stopping this form of gas extraction.

December 14th A Plastic Ocean

A Plastic Ocean: The film begins when journalist Craig Leeson, searching for the elusive blue whale, discovers plastic waste in what should be pristine ocean. In this adventure documentary, Craig teams up with free diver Tanya Streeter and an international team of scientists and researchers, and they travel to twenty locations around the world over the next four years to explore the fragile state of our oceans, uncover alarming truths about plastic pollution, and reveal working solutions that can be put into immediate effect.
